Legacy Healthcare Services joins Colorado Association of Homes and Services for the Aging

DENVER—The Colorado Association of Homes and Services for the Aging (CAHSA), Colorado’s largest nonprofit association representing providers of aging services, announced today that Legacy Healthcare Services has joined the association.

Based in Raleigh, N.C., Legacy Healthcare Services is a therapist-owned and -operated contract provider of physical, occupational and speech therapy services. Legacy is proud to deliver contract therapy services of the highest quality to skilled nursing facilities, assisted living facilities, continuing care retirement communities, outpatient agencies and home health agencies.

For more information, please contact Phil Jones of Legacy Healthcare Services at 919-424-5080 or pjones@legacyhealthcare.net.

About CAHSA (www.cahsa.org)

Established in 1968, the Colorado Association of Homes and Services for the Aging (CAHSA) is the state’s largest nonprofit organization representing a spectrum of providers that deliver services to the elderly. More than 200 member organizations belong to CAHSA, including nursing facilities, retirement communities, independent living housing and community-based services. CAHSA advocates public policy initiatives that support individual rights, quality care, equitable access and reimbursement for seniors. CAHSA is the state affiliate for two national organizations, the Assisted Living Federation of America and the American Association of Homes and Services for the Aging.
