Highland West Senior Citizens Apartments joins Colorado Association of Homes and Services for the Aging

DENVER—The Colorado Association of Homes and Services for the Aging (CAHSA), Colorado’s largest nonprofit association representing providers of aging services, announced today that Highland West Senior Citizens Apartments has joined the association.

Highland West, located at 6340 W. 38th Ave. in Wheat Ridge, is a high-rise apartment complex designed for independent, active and self-reliant seniors. The complex has 120 apartments with three available floor plans. The facility includes a recreation room with pool table, kitchen, outdoor barbecue and picnic tables.

For more information, contact Lisa Brown of Highland West Senior Citizens Apartments at 303-424-9401.

About CAHSA (www.cahsa.org)

Established in 1968, the Colorado Association of Homes and Services for the Aging (CAHSA) is the state’s largest nonprofit organization representing a spectrum of providers that deliver services to the elderly. More than 200 member organizations belong to CAHSA, including nursing facilities, retirement communities, independent living housing and community-based services. CAHSA advocates public policy initiatives that support individual rights, quality care, equitable access and reimbursement for seniors. CAHSA is the state affiliate for two national organizations, the Assisted Living Federation of America and the American Association of Homes and Services for the Aging.
