Correctional Counseling Selects Pivot Communication For New Web Site

BOULDER—Memphis-based Correctional Counseling, Inc., has selected Pivot Communication to develop a new web site. Correctional Counseling provides a wide range of treatment and training programs for offenders involved in the correctional system. In fact, Moral Reconciliation Therapy, one of the firm's cognitive skills therapy programs, is the most widely used substance abuse treatment program in the corrections field. For more information about Pivot, call 303-499-9291 or visit www.pivotcomm.com.
